

Youth Charter Introduction session for staff and volunteers

Aim: Staff and volunteers will develop understanding of youth charter & interactive ways to engage young people both on Teams and through discussion how this could work in face to face sessions.

This training is designed to be delivered virtually.

Resources needed:

- Mural/whiteboard fox type platform activity set up
- Youth Charter assessment tool – staff to complete as we discuss

Youth Charter introduction session

Time	Description	Method
10mins	Welcome and introductions	Who are you working with? What are you doing with young people? How have you adapted?
25mins	Value continuum activity  Next Steps (developing action plan)  Big vote – prioritising the key actions for yp	Using the statements from the Youth Charter have a discussion and decide where on the continuum you would put each one, depending on how well you think your service does each aspect?  Next steps – what steps do you think the service need to take to improve each of these? What ideas do you have?  Big vote – vote on mural/White board fox, which of these changes do you think would be most important for young people in the service?
10 mins	Youth Charter assessment tool	During the previous discussions the notes are added to the assessment tool. Show the group the tool and how it can be used during an activity to complete. Demonstrate the conversation can happen creatively but you still get the info needed & how much more creative we can be when meeting in person.

Session plan page 2

20mins	Develop a session plan	As a group devise a short session to be delivered to young people in your setting, to explain the youth charter and get their views on how your service is following the principals of the YC. How could this be adapted for virtual meeting/1-1/ different groups
5mins	Coordinated approach	If you are individually undertaking this work with young people how will you bring your finds together to have an overall picture?
5 mins	Questions & any other discussion points	Any questions on Youth Charter or delivering the activity?  What other support or training would be useful for you around participation & engaging YP?
